

Trick or treating this week saw us having our Halloween party.
We played lots of traditional games.

We made good use of our pumpkin later on in the week where we made a delicious pumpkin soup. We had it for snack and there was enough left to take some home for mum and dad to taste too.

