

During outdoor play this week we collected and pick brambles. They were very tasty. We brought them back to school to make a delicious backberry and apple crumble to take home for mums and dads

