

Our first week back and the start of our new Outdoor Spaces topic. The children contributed their own thoughts and ideas to our floorbook planning and were delighted when some pupils from P1-P3 came to join them in a caterpillar board game to help with ordering numbers. Preparation work in our nursery garden as we work on some improvements.

