

We wrote a letter collaboratively to our local 'Jewson's' store asking for their help with some supplies to help make our nursery garden more inviting We displayed super writing and communication skills after we had lots of discussion to decide what we would like to ask for. We included some pictures of us hard at work on our garden improvements

