

Scottish Book Trust Week saw us doing lots of book related activities at nursery. We has a book bug session with our parents and friends from the toddler group, took part with P1-3 in the Author's Live event with Bear in a Chair author Ross Collins and had two pupils from the senior class come to read us

