

Our new focus till the end of term will be the fantastic world of science. We have set up a Mad Science role play area to conduct, experiment and investigate lots of different substances and there properties

