

We have been experimenting with dish soap and sugar during outdoor play to make the perfect bubble solution. Look at our huge bubbles made with a hula hoop. In our science lab we did some research with some solids to see if they dissolved in water

