

This week we took part in the Rotary Club's Kintyre Music Festival. The adjudicator was most impressed that we learnt a gaelic song as our entry. Meanwhile down in the lab we observed the reaction when vinegar and salt was mixed to clean pennies, combined liquids and powders to make compounds and investigated with magnets.

