

It's all about movement this week! We kicked off our new Space topic Using cardboard boxes to build moon rovers and buggies. We took part in some better movers better thinkers sessions with Miss Fraser and the P1-3 class. Using our creative and imagination skills to construct our control panels for our space station role play area

