

Joining in with the whole school for a Samba performance to parents.
Great fun boom whacking in time to the rhythm.

We took our messy play outdoors to make some cosmic galaxies using a pendulum as we swung the paint back and forth. Indoor space painting to was tricky as it was strung up to simulate anti gravity floating in space. We weren't allowed to use our hands and the paper kept moving and wouldn't keep still. What a challenge!

