

Lots of spooky going on's this week in nursery. Lovely colour mixing potions in the tuff tray as well as skeleton arm , ghost and bat crafts and using our witches fingers to pick out the bugs in the gloop! This was so tricky. Beautiful Autumn walks out and around the village exploring the fallen leaves and look we found a snail who came out to say hello. Our week ended with a special Halloween Bookbug session and fabulous Halloween party.